WHY HFW?

FASTTRACK PROCESS

KEY CONTACTS

Holman Fenwick Willan's team of industry experts, who are also accredited mediators, offers an impartial service to help parties resolve their disputes without the need for lengthy and costly litigation.

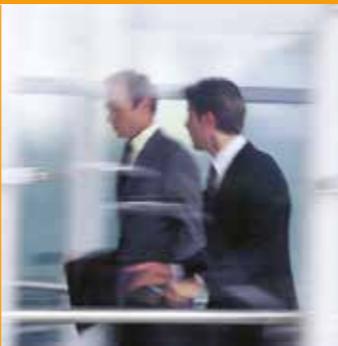

Our mediators have in-depth understanding of the industry sector in which you operate, enabling them to help parties in dispute achieve a desirable outcome more effectively.

Our ultimate aim is to achieve resolution by mediation, either through our Fast Track mediation process or by the appointment of one of our accredited mediators. If this is not possible, then, at the option of both parties, we can move to adjudication, whereby one of our mediators will give a binding decision on the dispute.

Benefits to you

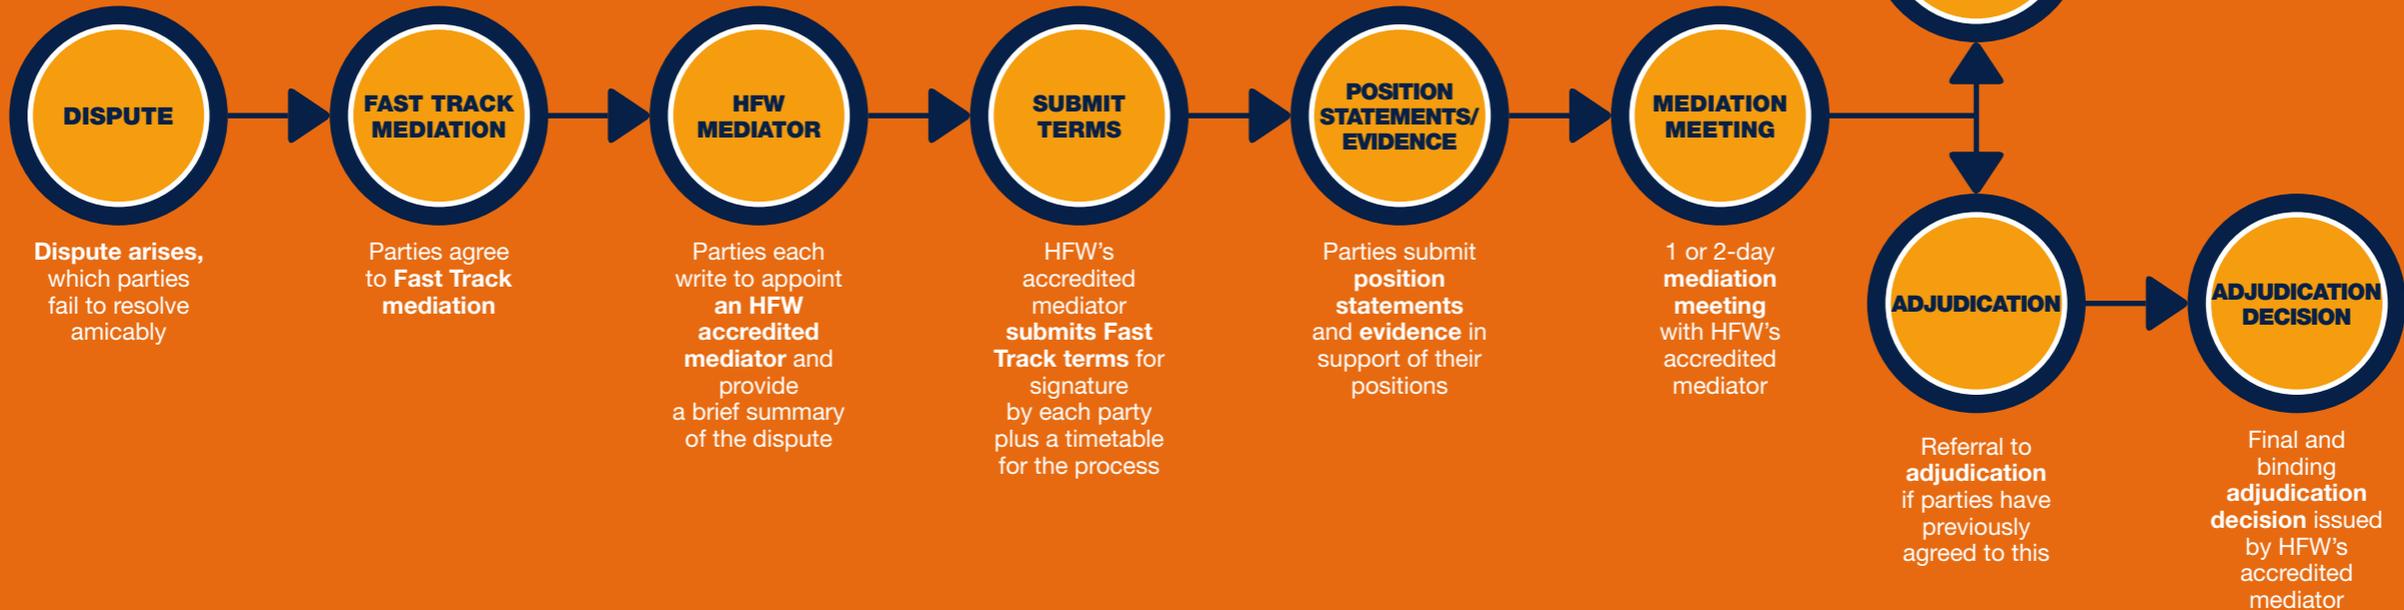

- Accredited mediators with a valuable combination of:
 - In-depth industry knowledge and experience.
 - Legal expertise.
- Innovative solutions.
- Effective outcomes that make commercial sense.
- Impartial and non-binding until agreement reached.
- Private, confidential and without prejudice.
- Accelerated process: resolution within 28-45 days, depending on complexity of dispute.
- Cost-effective: fixed or capped fee to be agreed in advance.

“ Clients are increasingly concerned about the disproportionate amount of time, effort and money that is spent on overcoming their disputes. HFW's Fast Track service is designed to address such concerns head-on. ”

“ Whilst winning an argument may be considered important, the preservation of a commercial relationship is often likely to be more so. Clients need to look ahead and ask themselves: can we really afford to fall out with one another? ”

KEY CONTACTS

If you would like to know more about about how Fast Track mediation can help resolve your disputes, please contact one of our CEDR* accredited mediators:

Edward Spencer

Partner and CEDR accredited mediator

T: +44 (0)20 7264 8314

M: +44 (0)7825 007005

E: edward.spencer@hfw.com

Edward specialises in handling liability claims across the whole spectrum of the aviation sector, but with particular focus on airlines, corporate jets, light aircraft and helicopters. He has been regularly involved in disaster response management and major accident litigation both at home and abroad, with recent examples including the Vauxhall helicopter crash in January 2013 and the crash-landing of an Asiana Airlines Boeing 777 at San Francisco in July 2013. He also has considerable experience of insurance coverage disputes.

Edward began his career as a general insurance lawyer but he developed a specialism in aviation when he was seconded to British Airports Authority to assist on the Terminal 5 Public Enquiry in the late 1990s. Edward has contributed articles to the aviation and insurance press and speaks on aviation-related topics at conferences. He is a member of the Guild of Air Pilots and qualified for his private pilot's licence in both the USA and Europe in 2001.

Zohar Zik

Partner and CEDR accredited mediator

T: +44 (0)20 7264 8251

M: +44 (0)7976 361221

E: zohar.zik@hfw.com

Zohar has particular expertise in aviation finance and leasing as well as commercial contracting. He has advised extensively on all aspects of aircraft and engine operating leasing and related fleet management issues, such as lease novations, end-of-lease returns and aircraft and engines purchases and disposals. His aviation finance experience extends to a wide variety of transactions, including sale and leaseback (including portfolio), finance leasing, hire purchase and conditional sale agreements, structured tax-based financings, cross-border transactions, receivables financing and securitisation.

Zohar is also very experienced in advising on commercial agreements pertaining to fuel supply, ground handling, maintenance contracts, airport slot trading, catering, aircraft charter, wet leases and carrier's conditions of carriage and booking.

Prior to joining the HFW team, Zohar was in a general counsel role at a leading global tourism company and operator of one of Europe's largest fleets of aircraft.
